

There is no need to be afraid....
HE LIVES!!

The Easter Triduum is a high priority at St. Cecilia's. As always, a great many people worked very hard to create an atmosphere of deep prayer and profound faith. Father Paul Cox must be mentioned first. Father gives so generously of himself, when in fact, he deserves to be on a golf course in the Carolina's! Father has great zeal, generosity, and gentle kindness and humor. Our music ministers have worked tirelessly for weeks to perfect the "prayer-song" for four different liturgies, back to back We thank Ann Murphy, Joe Ehle, Lou Zahra, Richie Henzler, Elaine Henzler, Jane Skorko, Kim Belanger, and Laurie Hess for doubling our prayer with song. Our ministers of the environment are folks that are always in the background, cleaning, organizing, decorating, and creating a sacred space that matches the season and the ritual. Judy Rozell, Lorry O'Connor, Dawn Brunner, Harriet Bunker, Peggy Knowles, Sue Shepler, John Cleveland, and Mark Semon. Often their work involves "heavy lifting." They do it without complaint, but only with love. Ed Gaiotti is included here as he hung our Easter Banner t his year, and all the years past. (A scary job!) We thank all who took a role in the Triduum. At St. C's, we don't "watch the Mass," but we "do Liturgy". There is a big difference, thanks to Patti Alexander, Maggie Bammert, Ann Bida, Chris Boggia, Dawn Brunner, Harriet Bunker, Ron Bunker, John Cleveland, Alice Damp, Joe Davies, Gail DeMarsh, Ruth Driscoll, Nathan Driscoll, Ed Gaiotti, Linda Gaiotti, Irene Harrison, Emily Kladis, Peggy Knowles, Sharon LaGoy, Pat Leonard, Dan Loyas, Pat Loyas, Sally Maloney, Richelene Morey, Diane Joy Murray, Lorry O'Connor, Judy Rozell, Ann Rubin, Mary Ann Schneidenwind, Mary Ann Seeley, Tim Seeley, Mark Semon, Bob Shepler, Kathy Sinnott, Arlene Swan, Peg Villeneuve, OJ Vonderheide, Kris Webster, Lee West, Doug West, Austin West, Jarod West, Haley West, Jeanne Wood, Natalia Yip (Apologies to anyone whose name has been left off the list.)

Thank you and God bless you!

LAST CALL

No One Offered...and it is SO EASY!

Some folks leave their returnables in the parish garage when Direct Deposit is not open. A volunteer is needed to transport them down the street about twice in the winter and maybe monthly in the Summer. Easy. Income for the parish. Your kids could help! Please let Sister Linda know you are willing. Thanks.

APRIL IS

ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH
