Easter Triduum

Triduum 2015

Holy Thursday 7pm

What is the meaning of and the call to table fellowship and foot washing in my life this year? Since table fellowship and foot washing are communal tasks, where am I called to be receptive, open to the gifts of others? Where is the Lord calling me to be of service?

7PM Good Friday

What are the crosses in my life this year? What are the tensions, the stresses? What are my attitudes? How do I understand the call to growth, to greater openness, understanding, and love, to life? What are the hurts, anger, jealousy or other things holding me back that I need to let go of? Am I aware of the pain of others? Of the world?

Holy Saturday 8PM

What aspects of my covenant with the Lord and with the Church need to be looked at? What do I want to be the focus of my renewed baptismal commitment this year?

No One Offered...and it is SO EASY!

Here is the story: Most folks bring their returnables directly to Direct Deposit and say, please give St. Cecilia's the credit. However, some folks leave their bottles and cans in the parish garage. So, your ministry is simply to transport the bags of bottles and cans to Direct Deposit and say, "For St. Cecilia's, please!" [To be honest, sometimes you have to separate the bottles into one bag/box and the cans into another—easy and doesn't take long.]

You can do the entire thing in about 40 minutes a shot! Over the winter, you could do it 2x. In the Summer, maybe once a month. Please speak with SLH to claim your new ministry.

Thank You... Jimmy Cunniffe who offered to play the trumpet for Easter... Ulla Morehouse and Irene Harrison for inserting the 200 music menus... Tim Toolan for repairing (and hopefully retiring) the snow blower... Dana Robichaud for teaching slh how to change the headlight .... Jane Skorko for filing the music.... Peg Villeneuve, Danielle Robichaud, and Irene Harrison for baking for and making Easter Bags full of goodies for our homebound...and for delivering them! Peg made each a beautiful palm cross.

PLEASE GIVE SPECIAL THANKS TO

our environment ministers (Judy Rozell, Harriet Bunker, Dawn Brunner, Peggy Knowles, John Cleveland (with help from Nancy Bunker Fuller and Natalia Yip). These folks will be working all week, changing the environment for each day! AND our Music Ministers are always working so hard to present a beautiful liturgy and more beautiful Triduum! We thank Ann Murphy, Joe Ehle, Lou Zahra, Richie and Elaine Hensler, Cheryl York, Jane Skorko, Lauri Hess, Kimberly Belanger, Dana Winter, Linda Apple, Jesse Schuettinger, Mary Ann and John Doty, and Dennis Coker!

Blood is needed more often than you might think. Even with today's technology, there is still no substitute for blood. The startling reality is that every 2 seconds someone in the US needs blood. That's more than 44,000 blood donations that are needed every day! We need new donors, as well as returning donors who give throughout the year to help maintain an adequate blood supply for patients in need.
 (Note: One of our parishioners needs blood regularly)
