Financial Stewardship

Last weekend, $2564 was contributed to support the ministry and maintenance of St. C's. Of that amount, $507 was "make up" from missed weekends. (Thank you, thank you.)

(Gulp. Our fiscal year ends in June. To meet our income budget, we need $2400 a week in Sunday collections from now on! Thanks again for the "make up". It really matters.)

*He is Risen!
It is true!
Alleluia! Alleluia!*

Thank You!

Sooooo many people were involved to make our Triduum so beautiful!

The list that follows will undoubtedly leave out many people who ought to be thanked. But here is a try! (Tell slh if your name is missing!)

Father Paul Cox is the best sacramental minister we know!!! Thank you, Father. You are a wonderful presider! God keep you healthy!

Gail DeMarsh and Judy Rozell and their assistants Alice Damp and Ellen Barlow who attend to all the details, finding, organizing, cleaning, putting away, calling for helpers, etc! They each have a true feel for Liturgy. Our music ministers, besides knowing how to move us to tears with their music, also know how to "punt!" At the last minutes, things change!! You would never know it by their demeanor and grace. We thank Joe Ehle (guitar), Laura Weick (flute), Debbie Allamena (keyboard), Vinny and Johnny and Nicole Newell who came home from college just to sing at the Triduum and Easter, Molly Webster and Aineen Callahan who are almost sung out from the school musical, and Regina DeCuzzi who dropped out of heaven and saved us on Friday! We thank our PILLARS who are sooooo dependable: Diane Newell, Cheryl York, Violet Spatz, Deborah Stephenson, Donna Emerson. We must not forget the "environment folks" who helped create a beautiful worship space for each service: Judith Rozell, Rita Ferraro, Harriet Bunker, Diane Joy Murray, Lorry O'Connor, Jo Melia, Gail DeMarsh, Phyllis Welsh.

Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Will be introduced and explained next Sunday following the 10AM Mass.

If you would like to learn about this wonderful prayer experience, please plan on being here at 11 on the 11th!

Hopefully we will be able to host a regular gathering at St. C's. Please come and see!

11 on the 11th!!

Thank you to Sister Catherine who folds and collates all the worship aids and all the bulletins (all year !); Ron Bunker who annually prepared our fire for us; Tim and Tyler Toolan who replaced the church storm windows with screens; Chuck and Jacob Johnson who raked the front lawn of the church in preparation for Easter! Thank you to the folks who donated the cards and goodies for the baskets and the folks who delivered them to our elders. We also thank all 87 people who participated in the Triduum Services. People have been incredibly generous. Again, if your name was left off this list, please tell slh. God Bless Everyone!!
