WE SERVE

THANK YOU IS ALL WE CAN SAY!

This is the busiest week of the year, liturgically. There are four very different liturgies requiring different music, ritual, and environment. To make it run smoothly is a fete in itself! Our thanks goes out to Father Paul Cox, first of all. Father presides with reverence and deep faith and truly teaches us how to pray by example. There just are not enough words to thank Father for his example, generosity, and gentle humor. We thank Brother James Posluszny for a thoughtful and challenging reflection on the Scripture Holy Thursday. We thank Gail DeMarsh who orchestrated the liturgies. Gail did a fabulous job of assigning ministries, rehearsing, remembering every little detail, and then pulling it off as if she did it every day! Our music ministers are the BEST!

Thank you to Debbie Allamena, Joe Ehle, and Lou Zahra Debbie played in spite of how ill she felt, Joe, who LOVES the Triduum, had to leave work early to be at practices-, and Lou flew home from a conference in the South to play!

Cheryl York is as faithful as the day is long, present and offering her gifts for EVERY liturgy and practice.. Her psalms are sung beautifully and with deep faith. Pat Cameron is new to the ministry, and courageously has forged ahead, learning all the music in a short time! (Thank you for joining, Pat!) Mary Anne and John Doty are always the first ones to arrive, setting up, always prepared, and juggling a busy and scattered family at the same time. They are wonderful musicians! And then there are the Newells, who have come home from work in Boston and senior year at college to sing with and for us. AND they could not do it without their mom making it happen by preparing their music, running to bus stations and dorms to gather everyone in one quick trip, rehearsing in the car, all in the nick of time! We thank Diane, Vincent, Johnny, and Nicole. Dennis Coker could not be here this weekend, so he asked his friend to step in: Chris Ritter has come to St. C's from the capital district to sing the traditional Exultet at the Easter Vigil. Chris is actually not new to St. C's because he directs the NYS Catholic Chorale and was here last week for the magnificent Stations of the Cross. (Maybe we will see lots of Chris!) And how about the Environment Ministers!! They went from Lent to Holy Thursday to Good Friday to Holy Saturday to Easter Sunday! Judy Rozell, Harriet Bunker, Lorry O'Connor, Sue and Bob Shepler, John Cleveland, Mark Semon, and Diane Joy Murray. We thank Ed Gaiotti who hung the resurrection banner and climbed into the attic to take the tarp off the exhaust fan! We thank Linda Gaiotti for Saturday evening's reception of home baked cake and cheese and crackers.

In the liturgies we need the lectors, Eucharistic ministers, greeters, counters, foot washers, light persons, incensers, servers, and on and on! For all the ministers, we say THANK YOU: Linda and Andra Leigh Apple, Maggie Bamert, Shari, John, MacKenzie, and Duncan Blydenburgh, Ron Boccieri, John Cleveland, Alice Damp, Sue and John Gallagher, Theresa Gomez, Irene Harrison, Diane Joy Murray, Emily Kladis, Peggy Knowles, Gail Lawson, Pat Leonard, Richelene Morey, Lorry O'Connor, Judy Rozell, anne Rubin, Sheila Satterlee, mark Semon, Susan Shepler, Donna Vetter, Kristine Webster. Finally, we thank our "Fireman", Ron Bunker.

Thank you to Gerard Killoran for hanging the new paper towel dispenser and to Chris Carlson for donating it.... And thanks and apologies to all whose name was left out or who helped after the bulletin was typed!!!!!!

Things to remember:

- If you have an account with TD Bank, MitoHopeandHelp will become one of the bank's charitable recipients if you simply call Marcella Towers (623-2991) and tell her that you would like to be part of the Affinity Program for Mito. TD is VERY generous. However, if 50 people do not sign up, Mito loses their chance. The deadline looms.
- Spring Enrichment is at the College of St. Rose, May 14-17. As usual, many wonderful Adult courses will be offered. Details can be found on www.rcda.org and in the Evangelist. Carpooling will be available. Watch for more info.
- The diocese is sponsoring a trip to Italy for the canonization of Kateria Tekakwitha, October 16-23. The cost is $2,895. which includes just about everything but lunches! Do you want further details? Ask Sister Linda soon.
