Next weekend we welcome
Father Erascto Naakuli

Diocese of Rulenge - Ngara, Tanzania, East Africa

Father will preside at Eucharist and offer a reflection on the struggles of witnessing to Christ in a land with so few priests. Thank you for coming prepared for a collection of aid to his diocese.

Did you know that our Bishop is

- a) celebrating 50 years as a priest
- b) celebrating his 75th birthday (10/31)
- c) and retiring after serving as our bishop for 30+ years?

Our gifts will be symbolic actions of prayer and service.

What prayer or service will you offer?

Already, we have:

Joe Schuster, Tyler Toolan, Melanie Warner, Glenn Warner who spent many hours piling wood for our elder, Ron Boccieri. The picture was taken by Gail DeMarsh, who also did her share! Ron's comment: "These are HARD WORKERS!!"

Thank You To...

- ◇ Dick Tennyson for repairing the porch windows at the Convent (broken 6 years!)
- ◇ Clark Orton for mowing and mowing!
- ◇ Anne Rubin for spending three hours sorting and packaging the school supplies....
- ◇ Gail DeMarsh for organizing and executing and chauffeuring for the wood piling!
- ◇ Richelene Morey, John and Marianne Doty, and Gail DeMarsh—who spent a total of six hours over four weeks assembling the next music menu. (And that was not the end! Gail still had to type/create copy it, check all the numbers, find the different numbers that match the musicians' books, pull out and copy the music that is not in the musicians' books and distribute it, and finally put the new menus in the books! Please say thank you when you see these folks. They are very generous with their time.... given for the sake of our worship. There is a great deal of work that supports our efforts at providing loving and reverent liturgy each week. And this is just the music choosers!)
