WE SERVE

This Weekend is
Our Annual Collection for

For those who do
not use envelopes,
there will be an extra basket / envelopes
for this most important collection.
In Advance, TY!!

The Appeal primarily supports home mission dioceses, that is, those unable to offer their people the basic pastoral ministries of word, worship and service without outside help. It may also give grants to other dioceses for particular projects, and to organizations and religious communities engaged in missionary work. The Subcommittee funds a wide range of pastoral services. However, it principally focuses on (1) evangelization activities, (2) religious education, (3) ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters and brothers, and laypeople; (4) support of poor parishes across the country. This appeal supported the two parishes in the Fairbanks Diocese that St. C's PLD ministered in. Without this appeal, there would be even fewer ministers among the poor right here in the USA.

SHARING GIFTS OF TIME & TALENT

So many people have given so much
this past week,

it is impossible to list without missing many.
On behalf of Sister Catherine,
thank you to everyone who made her 100th birthday such a fabulous, fun, delicious, and joyful celebration.
Thank you for coming.

Thank you for the cards and gifts and flowers.
Thank you singing, for setting up, for cleaning up, for preparing food, for watching the kitchen and serving. Thanks for the laughs!
Simply, THANK YOU.

SHARING TREASURE

$2371.81 was offered as Church Support last weekend ($530 was makeup from other weekends.). $116 was offered to support the Faith Formation of our parish; $55 was offered for the Emergency Fund of North Country Ministry; $246 was given to assist with our Building Fund; $30 was given for our Pope's emergency fund; $50 was make up money for the Feast of the Assumption; $10 was offered for the mission trip (although it is over, the trip was in the red with some unexpected expenses - this helps); $10 was offered to help offset the cost of the School Assessment. $220 was made on the ottoman raffles and $332 on the Adirondack Chair raffle. At the Golf Tournament, the parish made $425 on the raffles, $108 on the 50-50, and $230 on Mulligans. The final report of the Tournament itself is forthcoming.

BISHOP'S APPEAL

Still Short $385

If all the households who have not had a chance to donate, could donate $5, we can put this to rest.

Please and Thank You.

This responsibility belongs to each of us.

Cell Phones and Accessories

Until September 4, we will accept good used cell phones to be given to people in danger of domestic violence. 911 can always be called from such a phone THANKS.

KIDS' BATHING SUITS

will be collected until September 11 when we will give them to Mary Beth Gallagher while she visits from Namibia. "Her kids" are not allowed to wear shorts or undies in the pool... But why would they have a bathing suit when they don't even have shoes? In advance, THANKS!

WE WORSHIP

10 AM CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

is wonderful for many reasons: Our little ones hear and respond to God's Word on their level while their parents can listen without distraction to the Word as preached for adults. It is WIN—WIN. It is said that if you want to learn you ought to teach. Well, it is similar with praying! If you really want to "get something" out of the Liturgy of the Word, "break it open" for others—including children.

Both Kathy Sinnott and Phyllis Welsh have "retired" from presiding on Sunday mornings.

They could never be thanked enough!

But they do need to be replaced!

So, there are at least two openings for this ministry.

Requirements? a) love of our children b) love of the Word of God c) commitment and faithfulness d) ability to engage children (easy— our kids are super)

If you would like to learn more,
please speak with Gail DeMarsh.

Should no one come forward,
does it mean the parish does not want this ministry any longer?

WE TEACH

11/27/11 First Sunday of Advent

Q. When the priest says "the Lord be with you" will the response be "and with your spirit," instead of "and also with you"?

A. The text in Latin is Et cum spiritu tuo, so the new translation is a more exact reflection of the original words, literally "and with your spirit."

Here is some background by the great Jesuit liturgist, Joseph A. Jungmann:

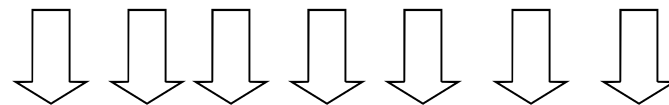

"Both the greeting and the reply are ancient, their origins hid in pre-Christian times. In the Book of Ruth (2:4) Booz greets his reapers with Dominus Vobiscum. The salutation was thus part of everyday life. It is met with several times in Holy Scripture (Luke 1:28, cf. Judges 6:12, 2 Chronicles 15:2, 2 Thessalonians 3:16). The reply of the reapers to Booz's greeting was: Benedicat tibi Dominus. [May the Lord bless you.] We employ a phrase which means almost the same thing: Et cum spiritu tuo, a formula which betrays its Hebrew origin and has many parallels in St. Paul (2 Timothy 4:22, cf. Philemon 25; Galations 6:18; also Philippians 4:23). (The Mass of the Roman Rite, Vol. 1, p. 363).

His point, and this seems to be the understanding of the translators of the Missal in the seventies, was that if this was a greeting shared among people in their ordinary lives, an ordinary greeting was in order. Now, as we have said, the desire is for accuracy.

PLEASE tell Father Cox that you love this picture that was in last week's bulletin. Why? He said he is looking into a lawsuit!!

A few ways to help

- The labyrinth needs weeding by Friday.... easy work... an upcoming wedding is planning on pictures there....
- Faith Formation begins in a month. SLH is replacing Phyllis (yikes!!!) Especially if you like kids and like crafts, can you offer some time to assist Sister??? It will definitely be fun and easy and about three times!
