

Today we welcome to our parish Brother Philip Hira, OFM, who will be preaching on behalf of the Franciscan Missionary Union—Province of the Immaculate Conception. They have served as missionaries and evangelizers in Central America for over sixty-five years. They have also served and supported worldwide Mission projects in Africa, China, Pakistan, India, Asia and South America. The motto of the Community is: The love of Christ impels us....: (II Corinthians 5;14)

SHARING GIFTS OF TIME & TALENT

Thank you again to Theresa Whalen and John Francini who have been watering our landscaping and to Clark Orton who cut the lawn on Friday. Thank you to our breakfast workers from the first two Breakfasts: Carlo Fattibene, Harriet Bunker, Ed and Linda Gaiotti, Shari Blydenburgh, Ann Rubin, Bob Koriz, Ruth Fruda, Shiela Satterlee, Pat Leonard, Irene Harrison, Richelene Morey, Gloria Morrison, Danielle Robichaud, JoAnn Cote-Round, Dick Ouellette, Arlene Swan. (THANKS!)

SHARING OF FINANCIAL GIFTS

$1779 was offered by the community last week to assist with the fiscal responsibilities like salaries and utilities, etc. In addition, $266 was given outright toward the Building Fund, $171 was donated to assist with Faith Formation costs, $13 was contributed toward the Youth Mission trip, $10 was offered toward the fuel bill. $265 was given outright as donations and $10 was given for "whatever." By being very fiscally conservative, our head is still above water!!

PLEASE DO NOT PASS OUT.

Guess what we owe on our loan from the diocese. Just guess. The project cost $715,000, right? $ 9,456.41!!!!!! Wow This amazing fact is due to a few factors: Dawn Brunner's watchful eye on the "books"; the hard working and big paying folks at the breakfasts; the mega bucks that come in from the golf tournament; the super summer raffles; "save a seat"; and the folks who monthly and/or occasionally offer a donation outright to chip away at the debt. UNBELIEVABLE.
