WE SERVE

Peter's Pence

is the name of the annual national collection that allows Pope Benedict XVI to support victims of poverty, disaster, war, and oppression throughout the world with emergency assistance. Thank you, once again, for your generous contributions serving those in need.

next weekend = #1

On the first weekend of each month, the Community of Saint Cecilia's donates food for the party, detergent for the AIDS ministry, and cash for the Emergency Fund of North Country Ministry. In advance, THANK YOU!

SHARING GIFTS OF TIME & TALENT

Stewardship

Last weekend's Breakfast Workers were Ann Rubin, Richelene Morey, Carlo Fattibene, Irene Harrison, Danielle Robichaud, Joann Cote-Round, Meagan Lattimer, Judy Rozell, and Shane Putney. Many thanks to Summerite Tom Dean for digging up the pesky bamboo plants and for organizing the bottles and cans in the garage. Working hard on the Golf Tournament are Tim Morrison, Betty Kusky, and Gail DeMarsh. Ongoing thanks to Teresa Whalen for giving drink to the thirsty (ie flowers!) and to Clarke Orton for mowing the grass. Finally, we thank Rich Morassee and Pete Wood for the care of West Wing.

SHARING TREASURE

Many thanks to all who supported the church via last weekend's collections: $1597 was offered... $245 of that amount was "make-up." In addition, $225 was given as direct donations, $25 was offered the cost of Faith Formation, $5 was given toward the fuel bill, $65 was given for "whatever," and $434 was offered toward the Building Fund. So far, the collection to be given to the Franciscan Missions totaled $1033.72. (If you weren't able last weekend but want to give to the missions this weekend, just hand it to Sister Linda.) Gracias!
