- WOW!

(And thank you, parents!!!)

On last Wednesday, much of the Faith Formation Team (Emily Kladis, Kris Williams, Jessica Birkholz, Matt Swan-Scott, and Leigh Cain) met again to formulate plans for 2011-2012. A major schedule change is a possibility. The participating parents will be surveyed for input.

Please keep in mind, that we are trying to teach discipleship. That includes, but is not limited to, doctrine. So, as an example, the picnic this weekend is a way of teaching service, community, and gratitude. Even the way we treat our children is a way of teaching them. The actions of the adults in the community are "lessons with legs."

To the adults of the community, "Thank you for showing our young people how to follow Jesus."
