Financial Stewardship

Last weekend, $1828 was contributed to support the ministry and maintenance of St. C's.
Of that amount, $131 was "make up" from missed weekends. (Phew. It matters. Thanks.)

(Gulp. Our fiscal year ends in June. To meet our income budget, we need $2400 a week in Sunday collections from now on! Thanks again for the "make up". It really matters.)

WE GIVE ALMS

For the fourth week of Lent, this community sacrificed for others:
$100.50 for their school supplies for Namibian Children, $864.50 for school fees, $183 for their uniforms, $76 for Emergency Money for Parishioners and $50 for the Richard Stewart Family, and $43.78 to assist earthquake victims in Chile.

Don't Forget...

GOOD FRIDAY we FAST (no more than 1 real meal, 2 tiny meals) and ABSTAIN from meat. Fasting and abstinence express our desire to be converted in heart, to be reconciled with one another, and to love our neighbor as ourselves. Fasting and abstinence are customs from which we do not hold ourselves lightly excused.

For the Triduum, the Nave needs to be rearranged three times! Help is needed for that!

Plus there are lots of little jobs that need doing, many at your own leisure.

Did you check the sign up sheets in the narthex for Liturgical Ministers?

You do NOT have to be a Minister of the Word or Eucharistic Minister to participate in Friday's Passion or be a Water Blessing on Holy Saturday, for example.
