Thanks so much for Helping with the Garage Sale

From providing "the goods" to organizing the vendors to hauling treasures from Garage to Hall, to sorting and displaying, to selling, to packing up, to bringing the goods elsewhere. We thank Gail DeMarsh, Judy Rozell, Brian Angell, Diane Angell, Ruth Fruda, Anne and Gary Rubin for hauling everything during the week. The organizers did a fabulous job: Linda, Mary, and Dick Tennyson; Ellen Barlow; Ruth Furda; Theresa Gomez; Bob Shepler. The workers during the sale were terrific!: Theresa Gomez, Tina and Travis Gosselin, Pat Leonard, Judy Rozell, Peggy Knowles, Joan Bowen, Glenn Lunt, Mel Daly, Lorry O'Connor, Sally Maloney, Ellen Hickson, Bob Shepler, and Tom Dean. (Is your name missing???? Sorry—wasn't on the list.) Jan Dean provided the cookie enticement to buy a raffle ticket! Thanks to all. A few folks worked all day, every day! We cannot stop thanking Tom Dean organizes the event and was there start to finish! Joan Bowen stood on her feet for one whole day and Bob Shepler did it for two days! Please thank the above named folks for raising $1476.60 for us.

Ministers of Care is a group of parishioners who keep their eyes on the parish and ask: are there any folks whom we could serve? Of particular concern are our elders. The MOC's have been faithfully bringing Communion to the homebound, visiting those in the hospital and nursing homes, offering rides, and sending holiday and birthday cards. Sunday afternoon's "Healing Mass" is a new venture. It is hoped that our elders can get here, enjoy the community friendship, feast on the fingerfoods, and, of course, celebrate the sacraments. If you are looking for a meaningful ministry, consider the MOC!! (Start by coming to the Healing Mass.)

Kids' Halloween Costumes no longer being used and only taking up space would be welcome by North Country Ministry for distribution.. or leave them in the narthex and we will deliver them.

It is going to be terrific!

TODAY

Sunday, October 13, 3:30PM

First Annual "Healing Mass" at St. C's
 (Yes, it is a "Sunday Mass." Sleep late!)

Sponsored by our
 Ministers of Care

The hope is that many of our parishioners who regularly attend will be here to welcome many of our parishioners who can seldom, if ever, attend!

Special invitations have been sent to our parishioners at the Adult Home as well as anyone else whom we thought might be happy to be here. We sent the invitations to folks who might be shy.....so if you didn't get a personal invitation, it just means we don't think you are shy! Please come.

Please come ... support/ meet our elders!

This is a really nice thing to do.

Would you like to celebrate the Sacrament of the Sick yourself?

Just come. This is for YOU!

NEXT SUNDAY is Mission Sunday when we are asked to support missionaries throughout the world who offer practical, emotional, and spiritual care to communities and families in desperate need. Thank you for your generosity. For those who do not use parish envelopes, a special envelope will be available.

Welcome Father Rich Broderick...

Father Rich is the diocesan director of "Pueblo to People" (P2P), a "channel through which parishes can "twin" with a third world parish in Central or South America.

Saint C's sent a delegation to Guatemala last January. Now the question is: should we make a three to five year commitment to Father Clemente's parish in Quiche? (That is where our stove money went.... Quiche is the area of terrific violence against the Mayan people in the 80's. They are still recovering.)

WE TEACH

We need four more Storytellers.

Already planning on a story are Emily Kladis, Gail DeMarsh, Amy Toolan, Leigh Cain, Robert Shepler, Tina Gosselin, Sylvia LaRose, Margaret Carroll, Deliah Carroll, Ann Murphy, Susan Gerrain, Kimberly Belanger and Beth Callahan. The support team are Jane Skorko, Anne Rubin, Jim and Ellen Hickson, and Debbie Toolan.

MEN... 2 more men would be nice.
 (We don't want to send the message that men don't share their faith. Don't be shy. The assistance is unending.)
