Seats have been saved at St. C's

It is as if St. Cecilia's nave is always full of people we love and who love St. C's. The newest seats belong to David S. Brumley, Clementine R. Brumley, Foley, Jeffrey A. Daly, Walter J. Shostak and Martha Shostak. On November 9, a new list of names will be sent to the printer for name plates. If you have someone you would like to "Save a Seat" for, please let the office know this week. NOT CATHOLIC AND ATTENDING ST. C'?

Would you like to inquire about the Faith? We will be meeting on Saturday mornings at 11AM with "coffee and." No question is out of bounds or too small. Why do we do this? Why do we do that? What is at the center of our faith? ETC. If you plan to attend, please let Sister Linda Hogan csj or Gail DeMarsh or Irene Harrison know.

One adult in the parish is asking for Adult Faith Formation

That is worrisome. It has been said that Jesus taught adults and hugged children. We tend to teach and hug our children and forget all about the adults. After four weeks, only one person is asking for Adult Faith Formation. For now, we will continue to advertise what is being offered around the area until we find enough interested folks in our own parish to offer something locally. Meanwhile, it would be of interest to attend the Super Sunday teachings by Beth Callahan. The first is today.

Blessed Are They Who Grieve

Sunday, Nov. 7, 10 am - 3 pm
"Blessed are they who grieve" seems to be a puzzling statement when we are mourning, but the many types of loss are invitations into new life. The only way we "will be comforted" is if we give ourselves over to the grieving process. As we prepare for the holidays, loss becomes more prominent. This day we will look at the steps of grief and reflect on where we are. There will be time for reflection, prayer, and ritual.

Time /Talent Stewardship

Thank you to Doug and Austin West for transporting dirt for the hole behind the convent...and Danna Winter who hauled the dirt in buckets....and Greg Putney and Putney Landscaping for delivering three dump trucks full, and again to Kenny Hatch who will certainly stay on top of the project. Thank you in advance to Marc Miller who will clean out the tank.

Thank you to Teresa Whalen, John Franchini, and Peggy Knowles for "putting to bed for the winter" the landscaping around the Church.
