January 18-25 is the Annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

Greater Warrensburg Ministerial Association GWMA

Over the years, with the change in pastors in town, this wonderful organization went into "Limbo." It has been "resurrected" this past year with members of the Free Methodist Church, United Methodist Church, the Church of the Holy Cross, the First Presbyterian Church, and St. Cecilia's being involved. Each church (except St. C's) has a church member or two who are involved in the core group, meeting and planning as needed. "In the works" are a celebration of the Week of Christian Unity, a Shrove Tuesday Pancake Dinner, Stations of the Cross for Lent, and a CROP Walk. Does this interest you? Would you like to help and be on the core committee? Please speak with Sister Linda asap.

Have you ever given this thought?

With Jews, Catholics share a belief in the one Creator God who called Israel to be a light to the world. With Muslims, Catholics hold to the faith in the one providential God of mercy who speaks through a variety of prophets. Buddhists and Catholics come together in a keen sense of the finally ineffable quality of ultimate reality, and in their commitment to definite forms of mystical contemplation. Catholics and Hindus share a profound sense of the immanence of God in the word. All those points of contact, all of these 'rays of light,' are not only semina verbi (seeds of the word) but also semina catholicitatis (seeds of catholicity). Catholicism (Barron).

Your Balsam Wreath

Please don't throw it out.
Donate it to St. C's.
Leave it by the garage at any time.
THANKS!

(You will know why next Christmas!)

NOTE: Father Cox sends a hearty thank you for all the cards and gifts he received at Christmas. "Forgive the lack of thank you cards—I've been distracted!" Father is now well enough to leave for Puerto Rico Monday AM.

SHARING TIME AND TALENT

Ed Gaiotti raked the roof as best he could from a ladder this past week. (As you know, the snow build up ends up in the nave if we do not shovel the roof. This is the main point of the lawsuit that we are involved in. The architect thinks we ought to just shovel. Shoveling for the rest of our lives is not the answer because a) it is bad for the shingles and roofs are not made to be walked on b) Right now is an example of why we cannot shove!— the roof is covered in ice and (at this typing) only half of the snow has come off the slate— making it life-threatening to be up there! c) No one can get on the roof without having the proper insurance. In the past, it cost $250 each time it was shoveled. That can add up to a lot of money. In one case, the person hired never showed up. So, ) THANK YOU ED!! Meanwhile, Linda Gaiotti spent another six hours inputting data so that the tax letters and financial reports can be generated. Thank you to the folks that have helped shovel the walks as of late: Tyler Toolan, Tim Toolan, and Pat Powers. (Sometimes people driving by just stop and do a little. Nice!) Thank you to Judy Rozell who has gone well beyond the call of duty to start the job of putting Christmas decorations away for next year. As well, Gail DeMarsh has gone way beyond her "pay scale" to try to manage Faith Formation in light of everyone's very busy schedules! Gail is gifted with patience!

Attention: Liturgical Ministers

If you are currently a Lector, Greeter, or Eucharistic Minister, Sister Linda Hogan would like to meet with you for a twenty minute meeting before or after Mass the weekend of January 19—20. So, on Saturday, please meet either at 4PM or after Mass. On Sunday, please meet Sister at 9:30AM or right after Mass. Please don't be late. Please. If it is impossible to make any of the four meetings, please let SLH know so other arrangements can be made. Thanks.

Ministry to the Homebound has lots of "loose threads."

Would you like to help weave this ministry back together?

At one time, the ministry to our homebound and those in nursing homes and hospital was well organized and "oiled." As with most things, it lasted only so long. BUT, we are "standing on the shoulders" of these good and faithful men and women who have built and maintained and supported this community for many, many years. It is both our privilege and obligation to see that we meet their spiritual needs and give a bit of help in any other way we can. Currently, Irene Harrison faithfully sends cards on holidays and special days. Irene has been doing that for years! Judy Rozell is available for rides to doctors or explanation of medicines or procedures, if needed. So what is missing? Organization! Quite a few people bring Communion to the homebound and others visit on occasion. We need a group of parishioners whose main focus will be ministering to our elders in an organized way. Are you interested in being part of a core group or planning group? Please let Sister Linda know asap as this borders on urgent. Thanks!

Needed: Presiders for

Children's Liturgy of the Word....

- Adults, men or women, available during 10AM Eucharist who love children, love Jesus, and are willing to learn and share. Youth grades 7-12 are welcome to apply as well. The commitment could be about once every six weeks.
- All resources and supplies are provided.
- You will learn a lot, be amazed by the children, and feel very rewarded.
- "Come and See" is available any Sunday. Just watch.
- Speak with the coordinator, Leigh Cain, or with Gail DeMarsh.

Let's not cancel. It's too valuable.

This is too good to lose.
