Stewardship

Time/Talent Stewardship

Sister Marguerite Tierney spent an entire day sorting and filing music at the convent. Dick Ouellette sanded and softened the chair legs so the hardwood floors would not be scratched during Faith Formation Classes in the convent. Deborah Stephenson, Diane Newell, Gail DeMarsh, Cheryl York, and Alice Damp chose the music menu up until Advent.

Financial Stewardship

Last weekend, the community offered $2217 to support the ministry and maintenance of Saint Cecilia's. Our debt to the diocese now reads: $11,384.53 for the Hall Renovation and $93,976.69 for the Church Renovation thanks to the hard work of people over last weekend! Little by little, we are heading in the right direction. Many folks are using the extra yellow envelopes in the music books. THANK YOU!

Bio-Spiritual Focusing Workshop

Saturday, November 1, 10 am - 3 pm

The process of Bio-Spiritual Focusing powerfully guides you through identifying, being with, and releasing whatever in your life is keeping you from feeling open, receptive and balanced. By accessing your body's inner wisdom and opening to God's gifting of you, inner shifts which bring greater freedom of expression and energy in life often occur. A relaxed pace will support processing and integrating your new knowing.

The Third Jesus by Deepak Chopra

Saturdays: November 1, 10 am – 3 pm

There is not one Jesus, Chopra writes, but three: the historical Jesus, Jesus the Son of God, and finally the Cosmic Christ, the Spiritual Guide whose teaching embraces all humanity. Call to learn which chapters will be covered by this open group in this session.
