We Welcome

Sister Kitty Hanley, csj

This is our annual Mission Appeal.

Sister Kitty is Associate Dean and Director of St. Bernard's School of Theology and Ministry in Albany. She served two terms in congregational leadership for the Sisters of St. Joseph, and in that position, she made several trips to Peru and Chile. Sister Kitty also served as a contact person for Sisters preparing to serve in Peru. She knows them well! Over 52 years, in response to Pope John XXIII's call to religious communities for help in Latin America, twenty Sisters of Saint Joseph were sent to Peru. Our beloved Sister Catherine Schuyler is among them, having served for 12 years. Throughout these 52 years, young Peruvian women joined the CSJ's and now serve in schools, parishes, prisons, and in poverty-stricken neighborhood communities. Accompanying the people of Peru, especially families living in economic poverty, the CSJ's continue to live the mission of Jesus and, together with the People of God, strengthen the Church. The folks of St. C's are invited to partner with the Sisters through prayer and financial support. In advance, thank you for helping the Sisters help the impoverished people of Peru.

WORLDBEYONDWAR.org
a global movement to end all wars

The 16th Annual Kateri Peace Conference will be held with Fonda, NY, as its base on August 15th and 16th.

Extensive information on the nature of this event (I've been before and highly, highly recommend it. --David Swanson) is available here: <http://kateripeaceconference.org>

On Friday, August 15, from 10 a.m. to 4:40 p.m., the third annual day of reflection associated with this conference will be held at the bucolic National Kateri Tekawitha Shrine in Fonda. The day of reflection will be led by Thomas Gumbleton, a Roman Catholic Bishop from Detroit who for many decades has raised his voice, with great personal consequence, against war, militarism and social injustice.

On Friday evening, the Conference will officially open at 7 p.m. with the first ever "Rocking the Boat for Peace" cruise on the Erie Canal, leaving from Herkimer, NY. On board will be conference keynoters:

- DR. JILL STEIN, former Green Party Presidential candidate;
- DAVID SWANSON, author, journalist, radio host, organizer, blogger, World Beyond War director;
- KRISTIN CHRISTMAN, local writer and peace philosopher;
- BISHOP THOMAS GUMBLETON;
- HOWIE HAWKINS, Green Party candidate for Governor of New York; and many others eager to consider the conference theme of transformation in a transformationally beautiful and peaceful setting. The evening promises to be a fun filled one and a lovely chance to have a great time with some powerful voices for peace and justice.

On Saturday from 9 a.m. until 3:45 p.m. we'll have the opportunity to engage in a day long "conversation" with our speakers (see above and including DR. STEVE BREYMAN) and fellow conference attendees through a series of questions designed to move us from a consideration of issues confronting us as concerned global citizens to a contemplation of strategies and solutions . The day's structure is designed to promote reflection, solidarity, and action.

Saturday's discussion promises to be extremely informative, enlightening, and energizing. Hope to see you there!

The Storm Will Calm

For Sunday, August 10, 2014 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a Romans 9:1-5 Matthew 14:22-33

Sadly, the same litany of nearly apocalyptic news dominates the headlines for another week. To the storylines of violence in Gaza, Libya, and Syria, we can add pestilence in Africa and natural disasters in Asia. If there is any time that the Gospel story of Jesus walking on the water is more welcome, it is now.

Throughout the centuries, Jesus' miraculous calming of the sea has provided Christians with inspiration through persecution, war, plague, and famine. The simple message is that God is in control. No matter how the storms may rage, no matter what toll they may exact on us, our heavenly Father is in charge directing events for the good of those who serve him. Eventually the storm will calm and some sense of security and well-being will return.

Of course, we would prefer God to make a greater show of his power. We would prefer that he rend the heavens and come down to restore order to the Middle East, to cure disease, and to repatriate refugees to peaceful homelands. Like Elijah, we are looking for God in wind, earthquake, and fire. However, he prefers to manifest himself in quiet, hidden ways—ways that do not make headlines but are real nonetheless.

In hope, then, we must pray that the burst of rockets, the rattle of gunfire, and the shouting of protests do not drown out the whisper of God's voice to every human heart. That whisper urges leaders to pursue non-violent means to end conflict and strife. It convinces young people to secure a peaceful future through forgiveness rather than retaliation. As with Peter, it encourages us to abandon false securities and walk out on the often unproved but sure path of faith with confidence that Jesus will hold us up until the storm subsides.

Douglas Sousa

PRAYER

Heavenly Father,
We trust in your power and goodness
even as the storms rage around us.
We feel intensely the pain and suffering of the refugee children, their war weary parents, and those who wonder if peace is possible.
Calm our hearts to hear your voice whispering to us.
Give us confidence to step out in faith where you would lead us so that hope can calm the raging seas of anger and fear.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
